Cal State San Bernardino's music faculty travels to Palm Desert for concert

PALM DESERT, Calif. (May 11, 2009) – Members of Cal State San Bernardino's music faculty will travel to Palm Desert to perform classical and jazz music at the Indian Wells Theater on Sunday, May 17, at 2:00 p.m.

The program will feature classical instrumental favorites by Dvorak and others, tuneful guitar pieces by Miguel Llobet, and a jazz quartet of faculty and alumni.

The CSUSB music department currently has seven full-time and fifteen part-time faculty members. The program is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music. The comprehensive curriculum provides a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music with full-range of emphases, including Performance, Composition, Music Education, General Music Studies, Music Technology, Musical Theatre, Ethnomusicology and Music History as well as minors in Music and Recording Arts and Jazz Studies.

The Indian Wells Theater is located on the CSUSB Palm Desert Campus, 37-500 Cook Street.

Admission is $4.00 cash at the door and includes parking.
