

UNIVERSITY AND HIGH SCHOOL TEAM UP FOR MUSIC CONCERT

MAY 13, 2008

BY: MIKE SINGER

PALM DESERT, Calif. - The symphonic band from California State University San Bernardino is taking to the desert on Monday, May 19, at 7:00 p.m., for their first-ever Coachella Valley concert in a joint performance with the Palm Springs High School Wind Ensemble.

The concert will take place in the Indian Wells Theater of the Cal State San Bernardino Palm Desert Campus, located at 37-500 Cook Street, between Gerald Ford and Frank Sinatra Drives.

Admission is $3.00 cash at the door the evening of the performance. Advanced reservations are not required and parking is included with admission. Students are free with ID.

The CSUSB Symphonic Band & Chamber Winds are conducted by Dr. Jeffrey Boeckman, now in his second year as Director of Bands. The Palm Springs High School Wind Ensemble, directed by Mr. Brian Ingelson, will open the concert.

The CSUSB Bands will be performing works by Shostakovich, Hovhaness and Ticheli, including the West Coast premiere of Carolyn Bremer's new work "Malibu Danbury" and two trumpet showpieces featuring faculty teacher Larry Johansen.
